Collect and Readings

Collect:

True and humble king, hailed by the crowd as Messiah:
grant us the faith to know you and love you,
that we may be found beside you on the way of the cross,
which is the path of glory. Amen

First Reading:

Philippians 2. 1-11

If then there is any encouragement in Christ, any consolation from love, any sharing in the Spirit, any compassion and sympathy, make my joy complete: be of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility regard others as better than yourselves. Let each of you look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others. Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross.

Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

For the Word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God

Gospel: Mark 11. 1-10

When they were approaching Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples and said to them, 'Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden; untie it and bring it. If anyone says to you, "Why are you doing this?" just say this, "The Lord needs it and will send it back here immediately." ' They went away and found a colt tied near a door, outside in the street. As they were untying it, some of the bystanders said to them, 'What are you doing, untying the colt?' They told them what Jesus had said; and they allowed them to take it. Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it; and he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut in the fields. Then those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting, 'Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the coming kingdom of our ancestor David! Hosanna in the highest heaven!'

This is the Gospel of the Lord,

Praise to you O Christ

A Soulful Walk this afternoon

We start and finish at St Mary's, Hertingfordbury, setting off at 2.30pm for a maximum of two hours. We'll stop at various points to reflect on what we see, hear or sense. The ground may be muddy in parts with some sloping paths, so please wear suitable footwear and outer wear. Dogs on leads are welcome. We'll finish with a cup of tea at St Mary's.

Good Friday at St Andrew's

Pictures, prayers, poems and other visual aids help you consider the Good Friday story with a walk at your own pace past seven Stations of the Cross in church anytime between 10.30am–2.00pm. This will be followed in church by songs, hymns and passages from the Bible to mark the final hour of Jesus on the cross, 2.00-3.00pm.

Away Day Eucharist, Sunday 14 April, 2.30pm

Anyone who can't attend for the whole Away Day at St Joseph's in the Park School on 14 April is welcome to come for the afternoon Eucharist. Please speak to Rev. Alan or Chris Seward for more details.

Revision of our Electoral Roll

If you would like to be on St Andrew's Electoral Roll but are not currently, please complete a form to be found at the back of the church by the entrance. A list of the names currently on the Roll is available at the back of the church during 10.30am Sunday services. If you'd like to check your details on the Roll or you no longer wish to be on the Roll, please let us know. Speak to Carol Muhr, Clerk to PCC, or Phil Probert, Parish Administrator.
