Collect and Reading

Collect: Holy God, you know the disorder of our sinful lives; set straight our crooked hearts, and bend our wills to love your goodness and your glory in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

First Reading: 2 Peter 1. 12-21

Therefore I intend to keep on reminding you of these things, though you know them already and are established in the truth that has come to you. I think it right, as long as I am in this body, to refresh your memory, since I know that my death will come soon, as indeed our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me. And I will make every effort so that after my departure you may be able at any time to recall these things.

For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honour and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, 'This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.' We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain.

So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation, because no prophecy ever came by human will, but men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

For the Word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God

Gospel: Matthew 17. 1-9

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. Then Peter said to Jesus, 'Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.' While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!' When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, 'Get up and do not be afraid.' And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, 'Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord,

Praise to you, O Christ

News and Notices

Knightsfield
School *Listening

Specialist Sensory Academy

An exciting opportunity with Knightsfield School, Welwyn Garden City

Knightsfields, a school for the profoundly deaf, is looking for new Trustees to join their brilliant and dedicated team. Trustees play a vital role in supporting the strategic direction of the school, and the team is keen to welcome people from a wide variety of backgrounds and experiences.

- No prior experience with SEND or deaf education is required.
- What matters most is enthusiasm, commitment, and a desire to make a positive difference to the lives of young people.
- The Knightsfield team would love to hear from individuals who are passionate about education, inclusion, or simply supporting a local school.
- Please share the details with anyone you think may be interested.

For further information or an informal conversation about the role, please feel free to contact the office manager, Jane Broomfield, at jbroomfield@knightsfield.herts.sch.uk or visit the website: www.knightsfield.herts.sch.uk
