July worship software trial

On every Sunday in July, we displayed the entire 10.30am service on the screens and over the course of the month experimented with different functions.

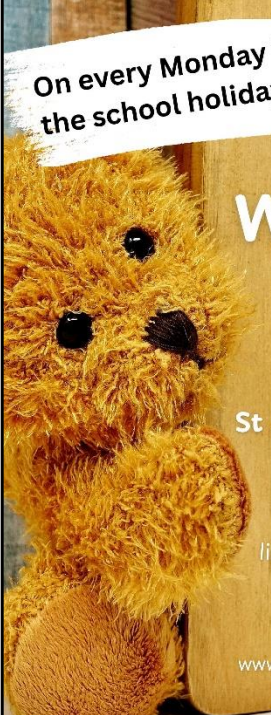

We welcome your feedback and, if you've not done so already, we invite you to fill in a short questionnaire (online via the QR code or on paper in church).

Please share your views by 20 August (extended deadline).

Thank you to everyone who's already responded.
